DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-3,6,8,10-16,18 and 20-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Carlson et al. (6414641).

Regarding Claims 1-3,6,8,10-16,18 and 20-25, Carlson et al. show a PIFA comprising a radiating patch 1 defined as a blank with periphery, a first feed connector 12 cut from the blank and extending away from the blank in a first direction and forming a cutout region in the blank between the short 13' and the blank (Fig. 5), and a second, ground connector 11 extending away from the blank in the first direction, dielectric carrier 2, etc., and locating pins (col. 3, last paragraph), with a bent/deformed locating pin/tab (unnumbered) and locating block (the housing that connects to the feed end of the rod antenna). The Fig. 5 embodiment is a direct substitute for that feeding portion in Fig. 1. It would have been obvious to the skilled artisan that the cutout region located between the short 13' and the blank 1 (Fig. 5) is deemed being completely internal to the conductive blank, particularly since there is a continuous connection from the short 13' and plate 1.

3. Claims 7,9 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carlson et al. (6414641) in view of Klinger et al. (5532707).

Klinger et al. are cited as resolving the level of ordinary skill in the antenna art and as evidence of obviousness where the antenna is completely formed within the perimeter of the plate in which the antenna is formed. The feeder, with ground connector 7,7 extends a first direction from the plate 5, and an antenna portion 13, defining the cutout, contributes to the radiation pattern (see col. 4, third paragraph of Klinger et al.). It would have been obvious to form the antenna of Carlson et al. completely within the perimeter of the plate and the aperture thus formed defining an antenna element effecting the radiation pattern.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims of record have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
